TAG MEMORANDUM 11-10

10 December 2010

MEMORANDUM FOR: See Distribution

SUBJECT: Two Year Mobilization Deferment

1. The New Jersey Army National Guard is offering a mobilization deferment for involuntary mobilization for a period of up to 24 months. The role of the New Jersey Army National Guard Soldier has become increasingly more demanding as we have transitioned from a strategic reserve to an operational force. Deferment for involuntary mobilization provides adequate transitioning time for Soldiers and stability for their families.
2. The following individuals who enlist into the New Jersey Army National Guard through one of the following enlistment programs will be authorized the 24 month stabilization from the date of separation or discharge.
  - a. Active Duty Soldiers who transfer directly into the New Jersey Army National Guard through the Reserve Component Transition Program.
  - b. Prior Service Soldiers who enlist into the New Jersey Army National Guard from the Individual Ready Reserve (IRR) provided that their last period of service was a period of 180 days or greater and in Title 10 status.
  - c. Prior Service Soldiers without a Military Service Obligation (MSO) provided that the individuals break in service does not exceed 24 months and their last period of service was for a period of 180 days or greater and in a Title 10 status.
3. This stabilization policy does not apply to existing New Jersey Army National Guard members reenlisting in the New Jersey Army National Guard.
